I am struggling to think of something to say in this article that will be of benefit to you, but I do not know where to start. The last few days and weeks have been the most difficult of my life. My precious mother was in the Jackson hospital for two weeks and then returned to the nursing home in Humboldt for a week, where she passed away on Thursday, June 6, at about 6:20pm. I was holding one of her hands and talking to her while Linda held the other hand.

We miss her so much and we will for the rest of our lives. But her beautiful spirit and her faithful Christian life have given us a great example to follow. Above and beyond everything else she loved God, His Son, His word and His church. She once said to me, as she pondered what to do in making a difficult decision, "I want to go to heaven more than anything else." She read the Bible and prayed every day. She made a note in her Bible that she had read Psalm 46 every day since 1959.

Those of us who have lost a loved one must work our way through the grief process, which is very painful. But it is also very necessary. But we take great comfort in the fact that Mother was a faithful Christian. Though we will always miss her terribly, we rejoice in the fact that she is "with Christ, which is very far better" (Phil. 1: 23).
