An Opportunity to Evangelize

The Williamson County Fair starts Friday, August 2nd, and continues through Saturday, August 10th. It provides Southern Hills an excellent opportunity to evangelize. For the third year in a row Southern Hills will have a booth at the Ag Center. Several of you have already signed up to work at the booth, but we could use several more workers. If you have not signed up and can help work at the booth, please see Joe Russell, Jeff Rhodes or Tony Tucker.

It has often been said that the three great works of the church are evangelism, edification and benevolence. The fair booth is a wonderful way to tell others about Christ, His gospel, and His church. We will have tracts, magazines, DVDs and other items to hand out to passersby. We will have the opportunity to talk to others about the Lord. This is a great way to get the name of Southern Hills Church of Christ before the community. Please help us in this great and important effort.

In view of the opportunity at the fair booth, it does not surprise you to read that today's sermon will deal with evangelism. This is a most important topic because evangelism, as stated above, is one of the major works of the church. Why? For at least two reasons. (1) The Lord commands us to evangelize. (2) The New Testament church was an evangelistic church. So we must be an evangelistic church. The fair booth is a great opportunity.
