Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

John 14:5-7

For me, most of the excitement of a vacation is in the planning. Deciding where we want to go and how to get there is what I enjoy most. I love to travel and love to see and experience new places. However, I want to utilize my vacation time very efficiently – to make sure we see and do everything we can in the time allotted. For example, if we are going to a theme park looking at the different attractions and deciding which ones are the ones we do not want to miss and make sure we plan our time in a way that we are able to experience these things.

Planning our walk in Christianity is as simple as taking the road map, the Bible, reading it, and planning the route we will take according to what God has said. We want to make sure we are maximizing every resource that the Lord provides. We read that he is the way, the truth and life; the only way to get to the destination, Heaven, is through Him. Planning our route is not deciding what physical direction we will go but, deciding how we will conduct ourselves, how we will respond to others and how we will approach every opportunity we have. Jesus starts with the beatitudes in Matthew 5 as a way for us to start our journey as a Christian. We need to make sure we have the right attitude before we can continue on our journey.

Hebrews 3:13, we are encouraged to exhort one another daily. The writer does not tell us to only encourage those with whom we have things in common, but to encourage everyone lest we fall into temptation. As we are going through this time of transition as a congregation, I would encourage us all to unite together, spend time in prayer and look for times we can encourage someone in their walk with the Lord. ~ Andy Miller
