Is God With Me?

Most people like it when others approve of them. We feel good when others agree with us and think we are “good”. That being said nothing is more important than God being on our side and approving of us. Amos the prophet of God said this, “Seek good and not evil, That you may live; So the LORD God of hosts will be with you, As you have spoken. Hate evil, love good; Establish justice in the gate. It may be that the LORD God of hosts Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph” (Amos 5:14, 15). That has always been God’s desire for man. Amos wrote to those who had done evil and lost their land. He was telling them what they needed to do so that God would once again be with them and they could once again have their land. No doubt our situation is different; yet, the same message still applies. If we want God’s good favor upon us. If we want to dwell in heaven when we pass from this life then we must seek good and not evil (Romans 12:9-21). We should love the things that are good and hate the things that are evil. Then God will be with us.
