Meditate on These Things

Solomon once said “For as he thinks in his heart, so is he” (Proverbs 23: 7). This scripture teaches us that our minds are powerful. If we spend our time focusing on corrupt things then we will eventually do corrupt things. That is why Paul said “Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy — meditate on these things” (Philippians 4:8). Pay attention to what thoughts fill your mind. Let us set our minds on things that are lovely and virtuous. And let us meditate on those things that are good.
