The Place of Wisdom

Solomon was a man of great wisdom. He received this wisdom from God in an extraordinary way. Yet as he wrote the book of Proverbs he made it clear to his son that he too could acquire wisdom from God. Solomon said: “So that you incline your ear to wisdom, And apply your heart to understanding; Yes, if you cry out for discernment, And lift up your voice for understanding, If you seek her as silver, And search for her as for hidden treasures; Then you will understand the fear of the LORD, And find the knowledge of God. For the LORD gives wisdom; From His mouth come knowledge and understanding; He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to those who walk uprightly; He guards the paths of justice, And preserves the way of His saints. Then you will understand righteousness and justice, Equity and every good path” (Proverbs 2:3-5). Solomon is known for his great wisdom. We too can have great wisdom; yet, it won't just happen overnight. We must seek for it like silver and search for it like hidden treasure. Let us all strive to be people of great wisdom and understanding. Let us realize that true wisdom comes from God.
