Shine as Lights

When Paul wrote to the church at Philippi he instructed them to “Do all things without complaining and disputing, that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast the word of life, so that I may rejoice in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain or labored in vain” (Philippians 2:14-16). It seems pretty obvious from this passage that even though they lived in a crooked and perverse generation they were still to hold fast to their integrity. They were to be faithful to God regardless of the behavior of people around them. In doing so they would shine as lights in this world. There is no doubt that we also live in a society where many do not live in a pure and upright way. Yet we are still to live as blameless and harmless children of God, and by doing so, we also will shine as lights.
