Lead Us Not Into Temptation

Matthew 6:9-13 is generally called “the Lord’s prayer”. It is when our Lord taught his disciples how to pray. In this prayer Jesus said “Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation, But deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”

There’s a lot we can learn from this prayer but I would like us to focus our attention on one particular phrase. Jesus taught in this prayer that we should ask the Father to “not lead us into temptation.” It is when we are tempted and give into that temptation that we sin (James 1:13, 14). Obviously, the reason we don’t want to be tempted is because we don’t want to sin. After all, sin brings death (James 1:15). It is so important to have the mindset that Jesus was teaching here; that is, that we should want to get far away from temptation. Many think it is fine to put themselves in tempting situation but Jesus taught that we should distance ourselves from the things that tempt us. Ultimately, Jesus said, this is how the Father will “deliver us from the evil one.”
