All the Other Nations

In the time of Samuel the children of Israel decided that they wanted to have king. They had never been ruled by a king because God had appointed judges to rule over them. God was their King. However, they decided that in order to be like all the other nations they should have an earthly king. Samuel warned them that the behavior of a king would not be favorable for them.

“Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, ‘No, but we will have a king over us, that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles” (1 Samuel 8:19, 20).

Therefore, God allowed them to have a king. As promised, this did not go well for them. Unfortunately, we humans often bring sorrows upon ourselves because we desire to follow man rather than God. Let us learn a lesson from Israel. Let us be satisfied with God as our King.
