Daily Encouragement

For nearly as long as there have been followers of God, there have also been those who stopped following Him. Clearly, this is a tragedy. So, we must ask, "what can I do to help my brother continually follow God?" At least one answer is found in Hebrews. The Hebrew author said, "Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; but exhort one another daily, while it is called 'Today,' lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin" (Hebrews 3:12, 13). My responsibility to my brother is "daily exhortation." We can exhort each other in several ways. Let us take some time to think about how we might encourage, motivate, and comfort our brethren on a regular basis.

Then let us do it.

MISSIONS MEMO.....

Eastern European Missions Hurst, Texas

Today, EEM freely supplies Bibles and Bible-based materials. These materials are given to individuals, families, children in youth camps, refugees, mission churches, public universities, public schools, public libraries, prisons, hospitals, orphanages, campaign groups, and anywhere else Bibles are needed.

EEM is currently working hard to raise money for 800,000 Bibles by the end of the year. The goal to achieve this is $4 million, this is EEM's goal for every year.

While the U.S. side of the organization is busy trying to achieve this goal, our partners in Ukraine are hard at work attending to those who might need their help. Due to the ongoing circumstances in Ukraine, many have been left to suffer. But recently the EEM team there was able to help 200 families who had been without food and water for days. From this Bibles were handed out and several Bible studies have begun.

We ask that you continue to pray for the work that EEM is doing in Ukraine.
