Draw Strength from God

Life can be hard. Maybe that comes across as an understatement, but I think we all know it's true. We all face times that are difficult and hard to get through. A good friend is a blessing and help us get through those difficult times. Asaph, the man who wrote Psalm 73, understood the value of drawing strength from others. But he also understood that there is no greater friend than God. He wrote "Whom have I in heaven but You, And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You. My flesh and my heart fail; But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever" (Psalm 73:25, 26). When you struggle with difficult times let me suggest that you draw your strength from God.
