Well done good and faithful servant.

Do Not Grumble

In many congregation, there are difficult people prone to negativity and chronically unhappy. Mature Christians join with their elders to make the church a positive place to learn and grow. It is one thing to affirm a disgruntled person's feelings of disappointment. It is another thing to commiserate with complainers. James 5:9 says, "Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door." Bad behavior should not be encouraged or rewarded. It isn't necessary to be harsh, but it is essential to face the problem squarely rather than hope it will go away. What can you do?

Redirect their attention - What can we give thanks for?

Reconnect them with reality - Actually, the sky is not falling.

Reaffirm support for what is attacked - Let's celebrate!

Repeat support for those maligned - Here's why I respect him.

Remind them of values they overlook - Rejoice always!

— Aubrey

Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.

Matthew 7:1-2
