A Soft Answer

The Proverbs writer said, “A soft answer turns away wrath, But a harsh word stirs up anger.” (Proverbs 15:1). With this proverb in mind, let me ask you to consider the way you speak to others (be it in person, through a letter, on the phone, or on social media). This proverb will make a huge impact as we teach others about God (and in other areas where we try to persuade people). Sometimes while “standing up for the truth” we use tactics like insulting, belittling, or just speaking aggressively. This will often keep up from persuading others. Yet when love, compassion, and sincerity is heard in our voices a lot of good can be accomplished. Let us always remember that what we say is often drowned out by how we say it. Let us always speak with love.
