Power Up!

When you are feeling weak, what do you do? Perhaps more is needed than a nap. Jesus said, "It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is no help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life" (John 6.63). Jesus' words are generative (life-giving) and transformative (spirit-renewing). They create and motivate. Paul declared, "I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek" (Romans 1.16). In other words, the gospel is God's "power" to effect change. The Gospel changes destinies (it saves) and characters (it sanctifies). Paul urged the Ephesians to take advantage of this power available to them in God's Word: "Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil" (Ephesians 6.10-11). God's might or power is the protection afforded by His inspired teachings. They impart life to those dead in sin and energy to those alive in Christ. People strengthened by the gospel become a force for positive change in the lives of others. They use their influence in honorable ways to move people closer to God. Nutrition companies sell an assortment of power bars to provide athletes a pick-me-up to finish their workouts. How do Christians endure to the end and finish strong? More time in God's Word. More time with God's people. Power up! - Aubrey
