Hold Fast to the Promise

The Old Testament book of Joshua is usually considered very interesting. However, when you get to chapter twelve you come to a section that describes the division of the promised land. This section of the book is not usually considered very interesting. Yet, when you read this section, think about being an Israelite. For over five hundred years they had been waiting to receive a “promised land”. They were told about it by their parents, grandparents, great grandparents, for hundreds of years. Joshua twelve was their time to receive the land. This was the time they had waited for their whole lives. Sadly, though, many missed out on this promise because they did not believe God would ever deliver. They lost faith as time passed. We also are waiting for a “promised land”. Some will never see the land because they have lost faith. Therefore the Hebrew writer said, “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful” (Hebrews 10:23).

Jordan & Amie Graham and their children are relocating from Bangor, Northern Ireland to work with a congregation in Branford, Florida. We have helped provide support for them as Jordan attended preaching school in Knoxville and then as they returned and worked at the church in Bangor. We have provided our support for them through the end of this year to help with the transition and then they will no longer need outside aid.

Jordan is already working with the church in Florida and Amie and the kids will be here by July. We need to raise enough money to purchase a van for her when she arrives around the 1st of July. If you would like to contribute to this effort, please give donations to Jimmy Lincoln or one of the elders.
